Eligibility: All artists must be 18 years of age or older and reside in the continental United States. Any traditional or nontraditional two-dimensional or three-dimensional medium or style, including but not limited to painting, drawing, fiber art, clay, metal, stone, printmaking, mixed media may be submitted. Work must be current since 2005 and CANNOT have previously been shown in a Rome Art Coterie juried show. Plexiglas must be used in place of regular glass when shipping artwork normally exhibited under glass. Please do not use Styrofoam peanuts as packing material.

Juror: Dr. Linda Hightower, chair of the Department of Visual Arts and Professor of Art at Kennesaw State University, Kennesaw Georgia. Dr. Hightower holds a master of fine arts in art from Georgia State University and an art education doctorate from the University of Georgia. She previously served as Associate Director of the School of Art and Design and School for American Crafts at the Rochester Institute of Technology in New York and also has served as chair of the art departments at Mississippi State University and Shorter College. An artist and a teacher, her work appears in eighteen collections throughout the south, Washington, D.C., New York and Europe. She also owned and operated an artist partnership gallery for fifteen years.

Dimensions: Framed size of wall-mounted work not to exceed 40" in width. 3-dimensional base limit is 24" x 24".

Entry Fee: $30 non-refundable fee ($20 for Coterie members)

Entry: Up to three pieces of artwork may be submitted for consideration. All entries must be submitted on CD. Slides are not accepted. Each CD must provide title of work, artist's name, medium, and size. Each entry must correspond with entries listed on entry form. Do not send images depicting "detail" of 2-D work. Each three-dimensional work may be represented by up to three images. Acceptable image files are jpg, tiff and eps. When sending entries by Express Mail, Fed Ex, UPS, etc. please sign Waiver of Signature so that mail can be left by carrier. CDs will be returned to the artist after jurying is completed ONLY if a self-addressed, stamped envelope (SASE) is included. CDs of artwork selected for show will NOT be returned.

Accepted Work: Artists will be responsible for delivery of work to and from Rome, Georgia. All artwork must be ready for display/hanging. The artist is responsible for any insurance on his/her work during transit and exhibition. (While excellent security is in place and utmost care is given to all entries, the Rome Art Coterie does not assume any liability for damage or loss before, during or after an exhibition.) Artwork may be hand-delivered or shipped. Artwork that is shipped to the exhibition must be accompanied by a pre-paid shipping label for return to the artist. Pre-paid UPS, FED-EX and Airborne Express labels will be accepted. Work shipped by U.S. Mail will be accommodated ONLY if return stamps for the full mailing cost accompany the work. Do not send checks for postage. Hand-delivered entries not picked up within 30 days of the last day of the show will become the property of Rome Art Coterie.

Awards: First Place $1,000, Second Place $300, Third Place $200. Five Honorable Mentions: $100. Awards will be made after the artwork is hung. Images on CD will be used for show acceptance only.

Sales: A 35% commission on sales will be deducted. Any work not priced will be considered Not For Sale.

Agreement: Submission of CD and/or works to this exhibition constitutes agreement on the part of the artist to all terms and conditions of this prospectus, which includes the right of Rome Art Coterie to use entries for publicity.
